

JEWISH LITERARY SOCIETY

OFFICERS ELECTED AND CAMPAIGN FOR BUILDING FUNDS TO BE PUSHED.

The annual meeting of the Jewish Literary Society was held last Sunday afternoon at their rooms and was the best attended in many a month and interest was not lacking at any time.

A motion was made to change the name of the society to a half dozen others suggested, but failed to carry.

A motion to incorporate carried unanimously.

In view of the fact that this body is now formulating plans for the building of a home the members were urged to be cautious in their selection of officers which resulted as follows:

Mr. Meyer C. Wagner, president; Miss Julia Blum, vice president; Mr. E. Goldberg, second vice president; Mr. I. Tiras, secretary; Mr. I. Greenberg, financial secretary; Miss Dora Stark, treasurer; directors, Rabbi Barnstein, Rabbi Willner, Seymour Brandes, B. H. Greenberg, S. J. Westheimer, Abe M. Levy, Jake Zuber and Benj. Hurwitz. Chas. M. Kapner, chairman of entertainment committee, Mr. J. L. Aronson, librarian, Mr. Henry Greenfield, who is chairman of the Literary committee, retains that task till July.

The newly elected officers were at once installed by the retiring president, Mr. S. J. Westheimer.

In appreciation of the most valuable services rendered the society a motion was made and unanimously carried to give Mr. Westheimer a rising vote of thanks.

The building fund of the Jewish Literary Society now amounts to about $1000, the latest contributors being Sid Westheimer, $50.00; J. Philipofsky, $50.00 and I. Kapner, $100. The amount subscribed has been realized with practically no exertion and what will happen in the very near future will be worth watching.

CONCORDIA BALL.

The annual ball of Concordia club took place last Saturday night at the club's hall on Texas avenue. The dance occupied the first part of the evening. The supper served in the banquet hall, was a full course supper and was enjoyed by everyone present. The decorations were suggestive of the Yuletide. The music was furnished by Schram's orchestra and dancing continued till the small hours.
